HUZUR SECRETARY MYSORE

Mysore
15th March

My dear Mr Banerji,

I have been long answering your letter of the 12th — but the delay was unavoidable. I had to sound Brill, Mr H.H. & Mr Rosall. I am sorry to say, it is not very satisfactory from your point of view. Brill was naturally very much upset — even furious — at the mere suggestion, ~~of which you can~~ & he will easily forgive you —

Langford House,
Bangalore.

My dear Mr Rice

We had a long discussion on the arbitration case yesterday in Council — & a resolution — such I had to draft — was recorded — Considering the whole position —

I enclose a letter

Continue to keep in confidence & also have to pay additional rent & costly repairs —

I pray to trouble you about this — but allege of our service — this valley tenure like at the mercy of private landlords — like Ramaswamy

I know the timidity with which you have regarded the matter all along he says! So now you feel he Am. His Highness cannot very well force Dick to give up his house.

So, I am very sorry indeed I have not been able help you in his matter. It is no doubt most exasperating to receive letters like the one inclosed & than to deal with a man of that type & I sincerely sympathise with you — but what is the good of that? you will probably say. Won't you?
If you can think of any other way, in which I could help you, do let me know.

With kindest regards, believe me
Yours sincerely
Maria M. Ismail him my landlord — & request he will take up my claim for 17 ths which the Grahams of Carlton owe me for loans.

'Langford'

This house requires at least £200 worth of repairs — beams are white ant eaten — floors are gone — & yet the man asks for more rent — without spending a penny on repairs year after year. We have already spent the last 4 years nearly more than £200 ourselves (in addition to rent — £250) only on my basket

If there is no chance of getting Carlton they must make the best terms they can with the landlord — but
